SEMESTER PROGRAM

Orphaned and Vulnerable Children in The Global South

STUDY ABROAD IN THAILAND

Spend a life changing semester in Chiang Mai learning about best practices in working with orphaned and vulnerable children. Through coursework, experiential learning, and a hands-on internship with a local organization, you'll gain real-world experience in child welfare, social work, and community development. This faith based program is ideal for students interested in counseling, social justice, or working with children across cultures.
